

Momo's Mundane Monday

Written and illustrated by Shreya Vishwanath

For my wonderful furry friend and companion of five years

Be good, Momo!

Monday
was Momo's least favourite day.

The weekend was over. The playmates were gone.

The loooooooooong wait had begun again.

But that was
okay,

because Momo had very
important things to do!

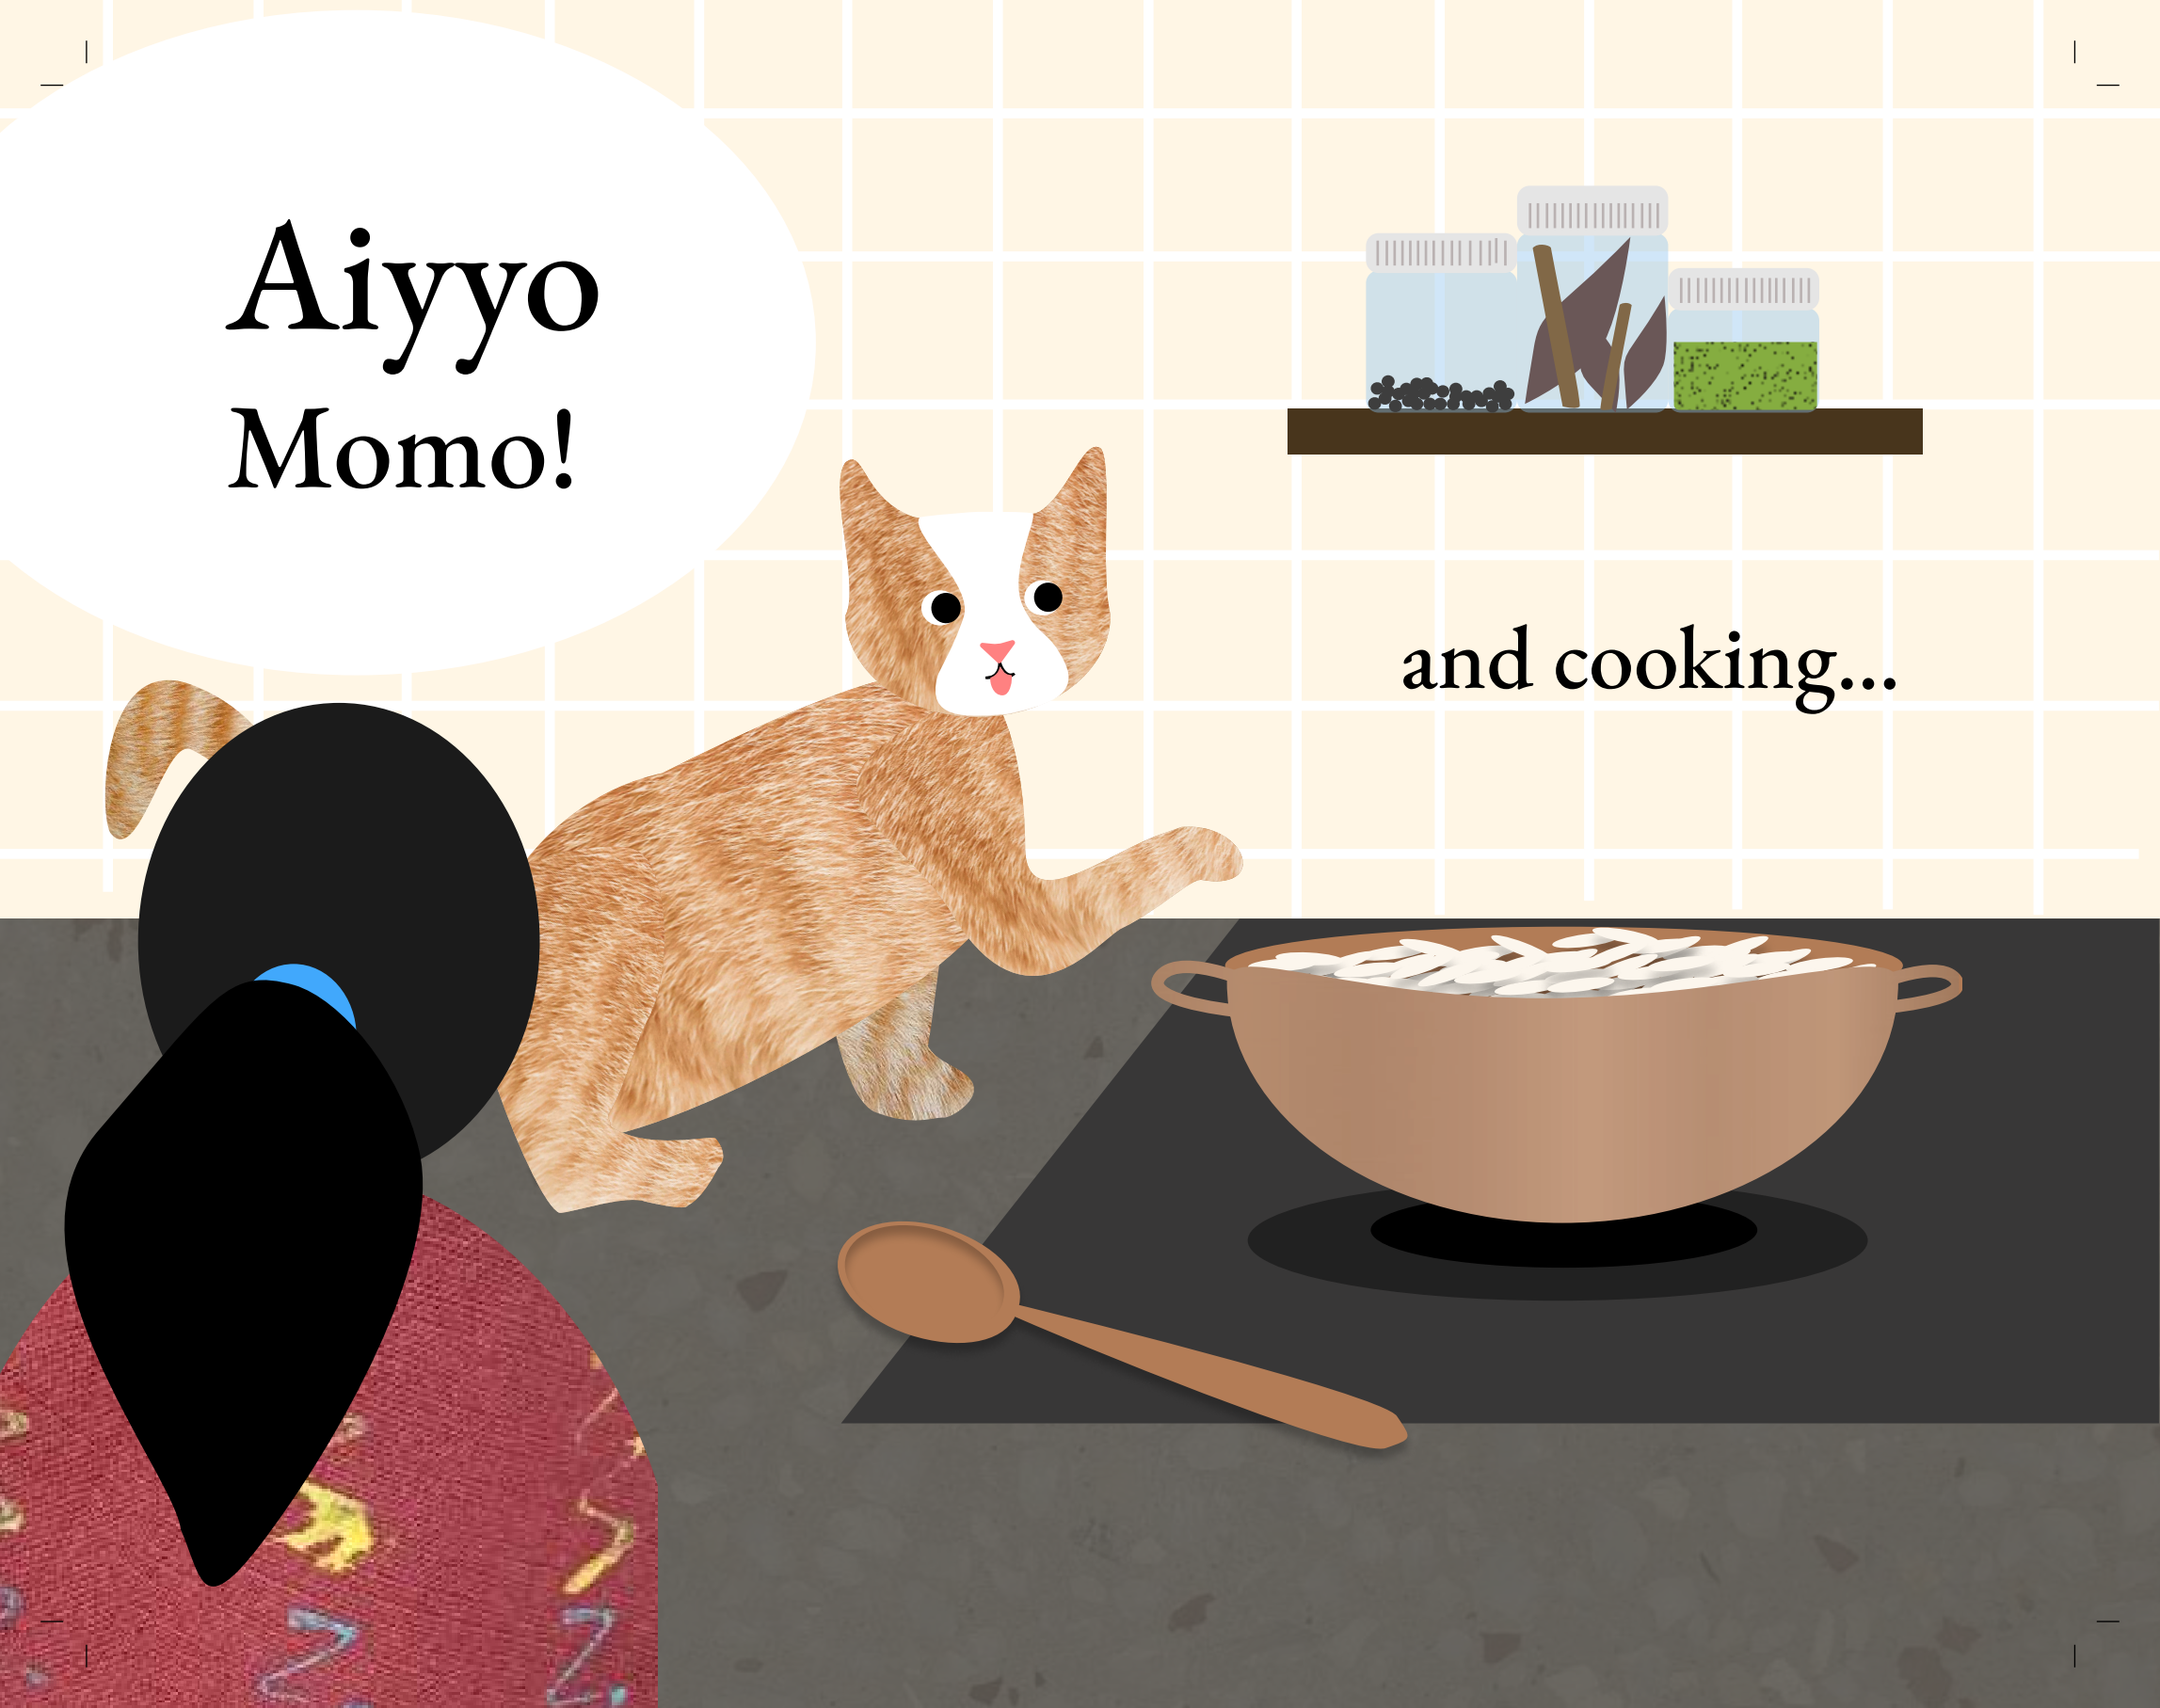

Arrey
Momo!!

Like sweeping...

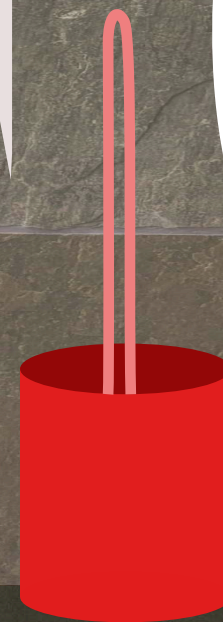

Aiyyo
Momo!

and cooking...

... and making sure
everyone had litter in their box...

and taking care of the plants...

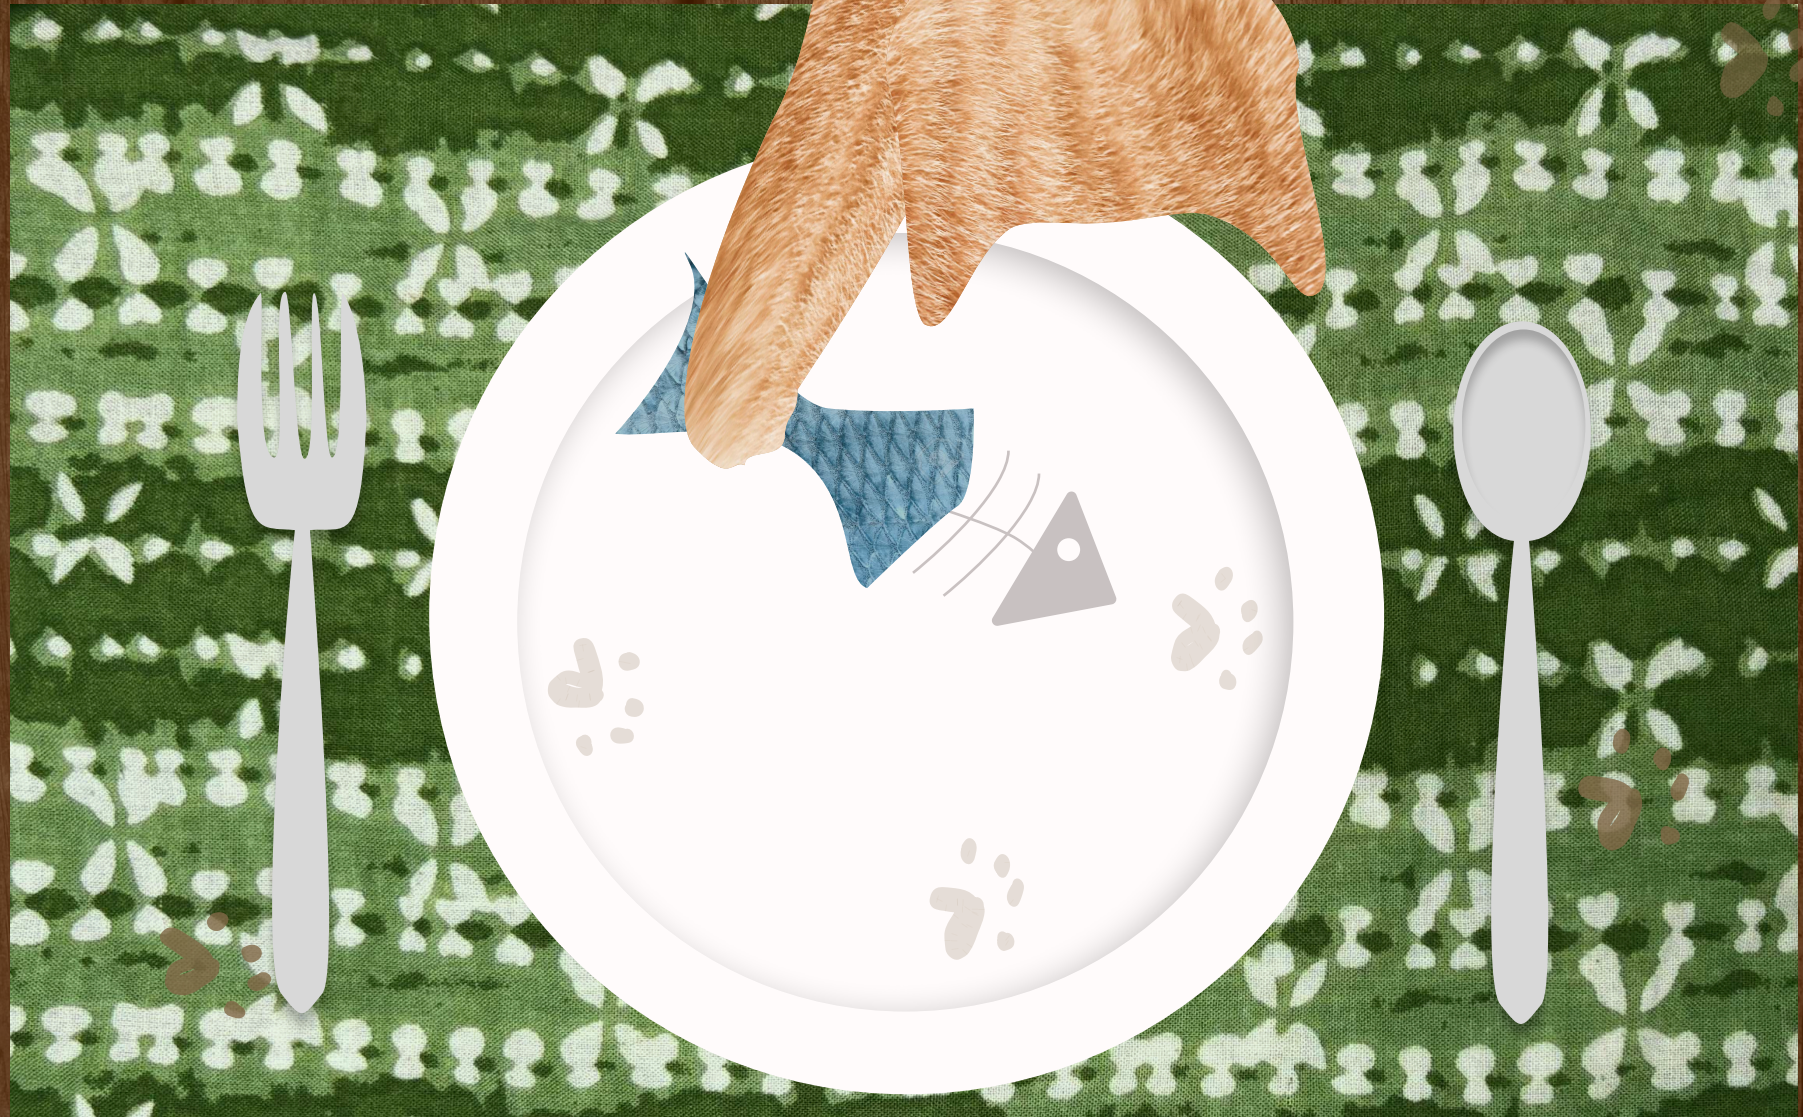

and protecting the house

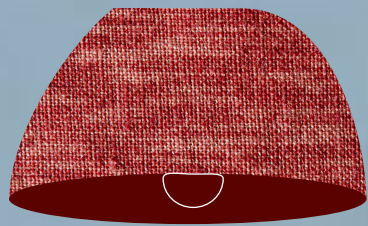

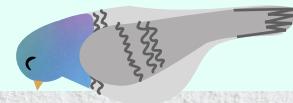

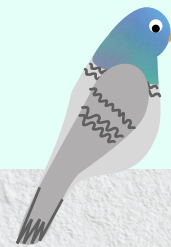

from pesky intruders.

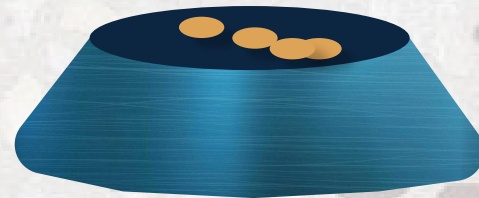

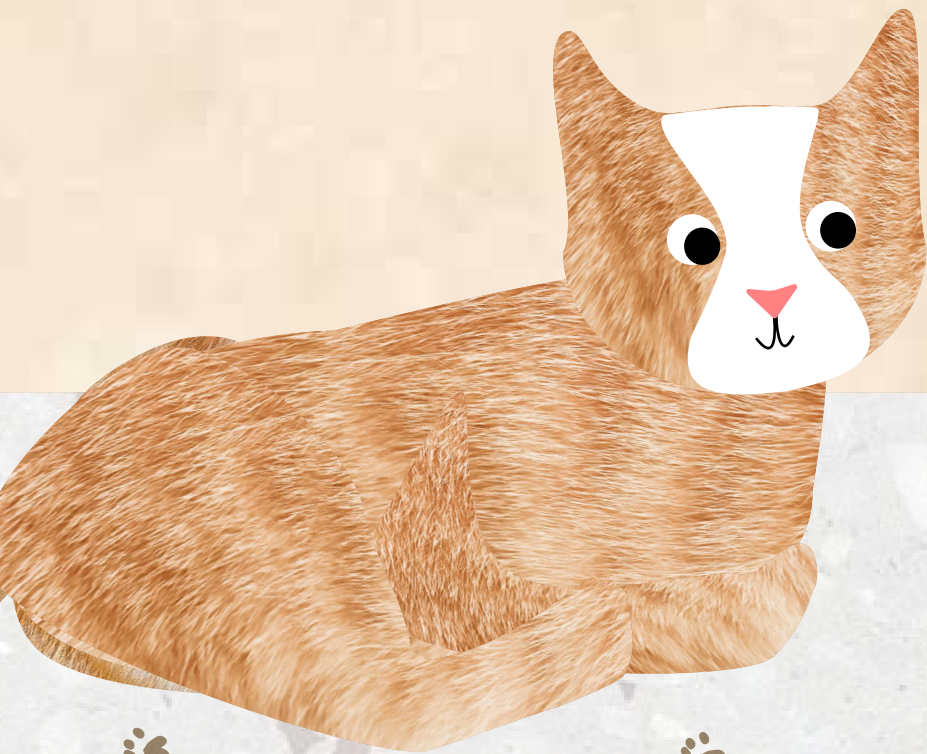

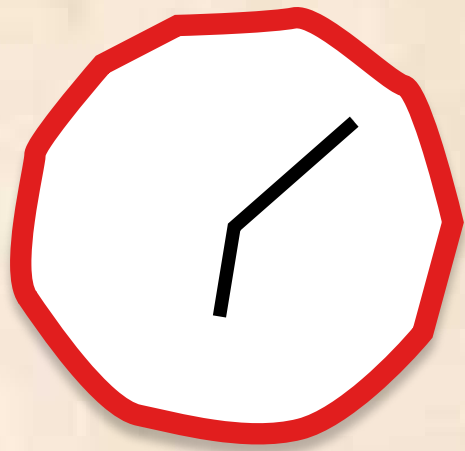

And then there was setting the table,

making the bed,

drying the clothes,

Meeting her friends for dinner..

And jamming together after that!

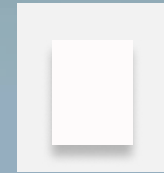

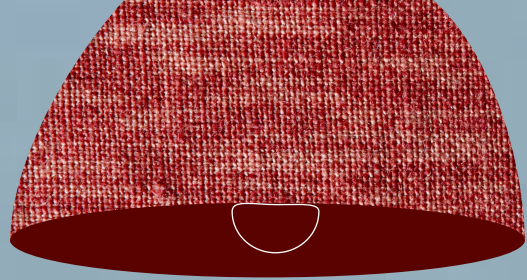

plink

plonk

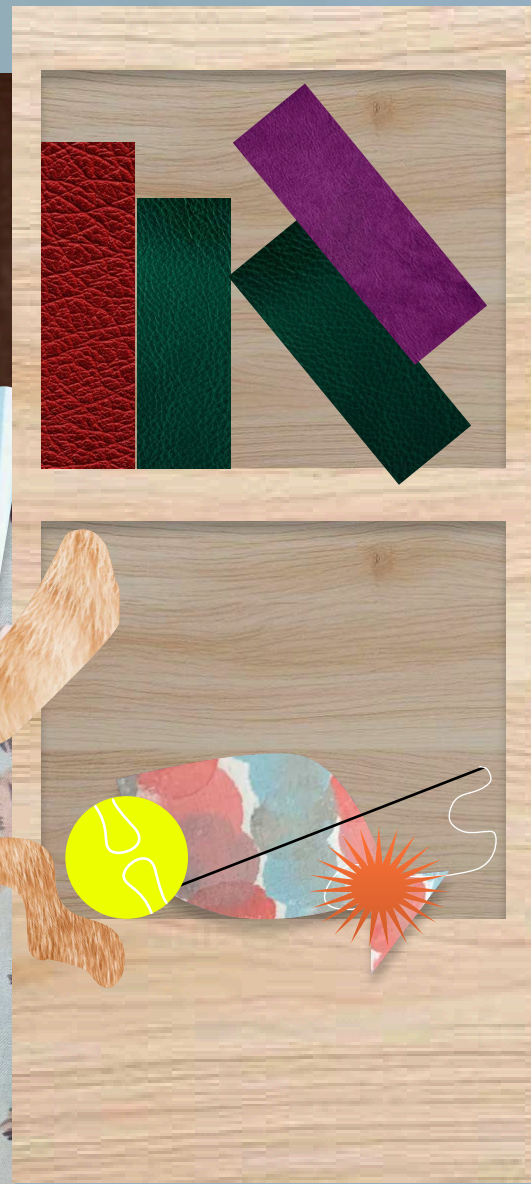

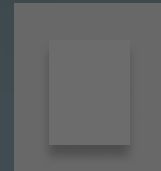

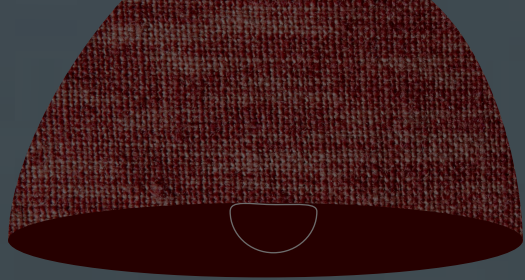

With her heart and stomach full,
Momo said goodbye to her friend...

And decided to take a nap to celebrate a day of hard work.

Momo slept deeply.

So deeply that she almost didn't notice when her family came home!

Momo was so happy to see them..

An illustration of a woman and a man holding a cat. The woman on the left has dark hair and is wearing a blue and green striped shirt. The man on the right has dark hair and is wearing a black and white plaid shirt. They are both smiling and looking at a ginger and white cat that is sitting between them. The cat has its eyes closed and a content expression. The background is a soft blue gradient.

and after some mopping
and rinsing and washing
and cleaning

they were so
happy to see her
too!

About this book

The real Momo is my five-year-old domestic shorthair cat, and much like her illustrated counterpart, she's always making life interesting for us!

I created this book to capture the textures of our life together and to share them with families everywhere. I hope reading it brought you as much joy as creating it brought me!

Adopt, Don't Shop!

Momo is a well-meaning house cat who tries her best to keep busy while her family is at work - even if that sometimes means making more work for everyone around her!
